The U. S. S. Supply arrived from San Francisco this morning at about 8 o'clock after a pleasant and uneventful o'clock after a pleasant and uneventful voyage. By a mistake the Supply was taken for the revenue cutter Thetis by the Diamond Head lookout and reported as such. The result was quite a bit of confusion. Collector of the Port E. R. Stackable had the pleasure of taking a sea trip. He expected to board the Thetis and was somewhat surprised when he got up to the vessel and found that she was the Supply. Other water-iront people were also hoaxed in various ways by the mistake.

ious ways by the mistake.

The Supply is at present under the command of Lieutenant Commander C. F. Pond, who is well known here. He was a few years ago stationed at the local Naval Station in command of the U.S. S. Iroqueis. Captain Pond's many friends here are happy to greet him. The other officers include Ensign E. P. Svarz, executive and navigating of ficer; Ensign B. C. Allen, Passed As-sistant Surgeon R. Bachmann, Boat-swains Shaw and Garvey, Warrant Ma-The Supply has on board twenty-five marines, under the command of a second lieutenant, who are to go to Midway Island where they will be stationed as a guard. The vessel also carries supplies for the marines as well as for the cable colony on the lonely island. A surgeon for the cable station is also a passenger for Midway. Captain Pond expects that the Supply will remain in port until Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

The Supply called at this port a short at matters behind the scenes, time ago. She was then on her way. The performances are given as a from Guam to San Francisco, having benefit for the organ fund of St. Au board the late Commanuer William E. Sewell, the Governor of Guam, who was dangerously ill and was being taken to San Francisco to obtain expert medical aia. Governor Sewell died in San Francisco shortly after his arrival there and Captain Geo. L. Dyer, the commander of the U. S. S. Albany, was appointed to succeed him as Governor of Guam. Captain Pond states that the Albany has been ordered to proceed from Asiatic station to Bremerton but he does not know whether she will call at Gua mon her way to leave Cap-tain Dyer there or whether he will go to Guam on some other vessel, On leaving here the Supply will go to Midway Island and thence to Guam. where she is to remain as a station
